

Advantages of Teaching at the American International School of Bucharest

This information, compiled from faculty and administrators, provides candidates with a clearer picture of living and working in Bucharest. This information reflects the attitudes and opinions of those who have been at AISB between 2 - 9 years, some who have recently left AISB, as well as those who joined us this year.

Our Faculty

- Dedicated and highly competent teaching staff
- Actively involved in developing high quality educational programs
- Positively supported by the administrators and Board of Directors

Our Students

- Comprised of 50 nationalities
- Polite and well-mannered
- Receive strong parental and community support
- Respectful of teachers and the school

Our Parents

- Actively support the school program
- Actively involved in the PTO which supports and very positively impacts the school

Our School

- Excellent reputation among international schools in the region
- The school's reputation cited most often in exit interviews as the primary reason for coming to AISB
- Availability of professional development opportunities was the second-most cited reason
- Strong salary and benefits package
- Exceptional facilities on a purpose built campus which was completed in 2001
- The availability of resources (books, IT, program materials)

- Fully accredited by CIS, NEASC and the IBO, and recent completion of our 5-year mid-term visit
- IB World School offering the International Baccalaureate Program in Elementary, Middle and High School.

Facts on Faculty Life Style

- Salary paid in Euros
- Bucharest as a city and Romania as a country are relatively safe and crime-free
- Option of living in Bucharest with its city lifestyle or near the school, which is more suburban
- English is spoken widely in Romania, making adaptation easier
- School calendar provides for diverse travel opportunities throughout Europe and the region
- Romanians are welcoming and friendly
- Ease of travel throughout the region and the world on major airlines as well as several budget airlines
- Ease of travel throughout a beautiful country, from the mountains, to the villages to the seaside
- Sports facilities at or near the school offer numerous exercise options
- Availability of broadband Internet access