Phishing for phools: the economics of manipulation and deception
George A. Akerlof and Robert J. Shiller.

In Phishing for Phools, Nobel Prize-winning economists George Akerlof and Robert Shiller deliver a fundamental challenge to this insight, arguing that markets harm as well as help us.

Shop class as soulcraft: an inquiry into the value of work
Matthew B. Crawford

Presents a discussion of the value of working with one's hands in order to connect intellect with the material world, and examines the divide between thinking and doing that began with the assembly line and can be bridged through self-reliance and concrete living.

Voices from Chernobyl: the oral history of a nuclear disaster
Svetlana Alexievich

Presents Belarusans' personal accounts of what happened in the aftermath of the Chernobyl disaster and how their lives are still affected, discussing the deaths of loved ones, radiation levels where they live, children's illness, birth defects, and deception by the government.

Among the bone eaters: encounters with hyenas in Harar
Marcus Baynes-Rock

An interdisciplinary study of the relationship between hyenas and the people of Harar, Ethiopia.

Seconds
Bryan Lee O'Malley

Katie, ... a talented young chef [who] runs a successful restaurant, [finds her] life [going] from pretty good to not so much ... Luckily for Katie, a mysterious girl appears in the middle of the night with simple instructions for a do-it-yourself do-over.

Bandette
story by Paul Tobin

Costumed teen burglar Bandette and her network of street urchins cause trouble for Police Inspector Belgique and the criminal underworld of Paris, France.

Symphony for the city of the dead: Dmitri Shostakovitch and the siege of Leningrad
M.T. Anderson

An account of the Siege of Leningrad reveals the role played by Russian composer Dmitri Shostakovitch and his Leningrad Symphony in rallying and commemorating their fellow citizens.
Germany's aims in the First World War
by Fritz Fischer
A new and controversial view of the roots of World War I.

The Scorpion Rules
Erin Bow
The teenage princess of a future-world Canadian superpower, where royal children are held hostage to keep their countries from waging war, falls in love with an American prince who rebels against the brutal rules governing their existences.

A step toward falling a novel by Cammie McGovern
When Emily sees her developmentally disabled classmate Belinda being attacked, she does nothing at all. Belinda, however, manages to save herself. When their high school finds out what happened, Emily and Lucas, a football player who was also there that night, are required to perform community service at a center for disabled people. But can they do anything that will actually help the one person they hurt the most?

The shepherd’s crown
Terry Pratchett
Tiffany must gather all the witches to prepare for a fairy invasion.

All American Boys
Jason Reynolds, Brendan Kiely
When sixteen-year-old Rashad is mistakenly accused of stealing, classmate Quinn witnesses his brutal beating at the hands of a police officer who happens to be the older brother of his best friend.

Falling Kingdoms
Morgan Rhodes
The three kingdoms of Mytica are on the brink of war, and four key players, a princess, a rebel, a sorceress, and an heir find their fates intertwined.

It's a wonderful death
Sarah J. Schmitt
Seventeen-year-old RJ always gets what she wants. So when her soul is accidentally collected by a distracted Grim Reaper, somebody in the afterlife better figure out a way to send her back from the dead or heads will roll.
The Bone Season
Samantha Shannon

In the mid-21st century major world cities are controlled by a formidable security force and clairvoyant underworld cell member Paige commits acts of psychic treason before being captured by an otherworldly race that would make her a part of their supernatural army.

Challenger deep
Neil Shusterman

A teenage boy struggles with schizophrenia.

The Alex Crow
Andrew Smith

The story of Ariel, a Middle Eastern refugee who lives with an adoptive family in Sunday, West Virginia, is juxtaposed against those of a schizophrenic bomber, the diaries of a failed arctic expedition from the late nineteenth century, and a depressed, bionic reincarnated crow.

Disgruntled
Asali Solomon

A novel about a young black girl coming of age in Philadelphia in the late '80s and early '90s.

All the rage
Courtney Summers

After being assaulted by the sheriff’s son, Kellan Turner, Romy Grey was branded a liar and bullied by former friends, finding refuge only in the diner where she works outside of town, but when a girl with ties to both Romy and Kellan goes missing and news of him assulting another girl gets out, Romy must decide whether to speak out again or risk having more girls hurt.

The mechanical
Ian Tregillis

Three centuries after the Netherlands conquered Europe with their army of Clakkers--mechanical soldiers who must obey the wishes of their human masters--they have reached a ceasefire with the French who advocate equal rights for Clakkers. One brave Clakker named Jax attempts to escape and gain his freedom and his struggle has a lasting effect on society.
Slasher Girls & Monster Boys

stories selected by April Genevieve Tucholke

Collects fourteen horror stories from young adult authors including Carrie Ryan, Jonathan Maberry, and A.G. Howard.